NDI's Partner Schools hold End-Of-Year Performances

This month, thousands of National Dance Institute's children are performing for their parents and school communities in high-energy End-of-Year performances Celebrating Mexico. All year long, the young dancers have studied the richness of Mexican culture and art through the country's traditional dance and music, as well as contemporary Mexican and American choreography. See photos.

NDI Receives Encore Award for Partnership with ING

On Monday, June 2, NDI's successful partnership with ING and PS 111 was recognized with an Encore Award from Arts & Business Council/NY. NDI received the honor in an evening ceremony attended by members of the arts and business communities, culminating in a performance by NDI's Celebration Team dancers. In three short years, the partnership between NDI, ING and PS 111 has helped transform the lives of thousands of students. The annual Encore Awards celebrates stellar arts and business partnerships, creative business volunteers, and superior arts managers.
